DAKTARI (Swahili for doctor) is an exciting world wide Television adventure series about a warm-hearted and courageous scientist dedicated to preserving wild life in the African Jungle. He lives with his gay teen-age daughter and two assistants and has two strange pets - Clarence, a cross-eyed bespectacled lion, and a mischievous and highly intelligent Chimp named Judy. His constant battle is against cruel and lawless men killing for the sake of killing or who traffic in hide, ivory and captive beasts.
